Day 2: Friday November 8th

Session 1: Preventing bullying and sexual harassment in HDR Chair: Professor Louise Sharpe AEDT 11.00 – 12.00pm
The ACCORD called for a shared, national	Professor Lousie Sharpe, University of commitment to the welfare, safety and wellbeing	Sydney, Interim President ACGR for all students. Evidence suggests that HDR students are particularly at risk for bullying and sexual harassment. This session will describe the development of a supervisor training program targeting the prevention of bullying and harassment, based around the clinical vignettes developed by ACGR. More than 200 supervisors have completed the program, which has been very successful. Discussion of ways to scale the training will be included.
We will then use some case studies to discuss how to manage situations related to bullying when they arise.
